HOUSE

Studio A

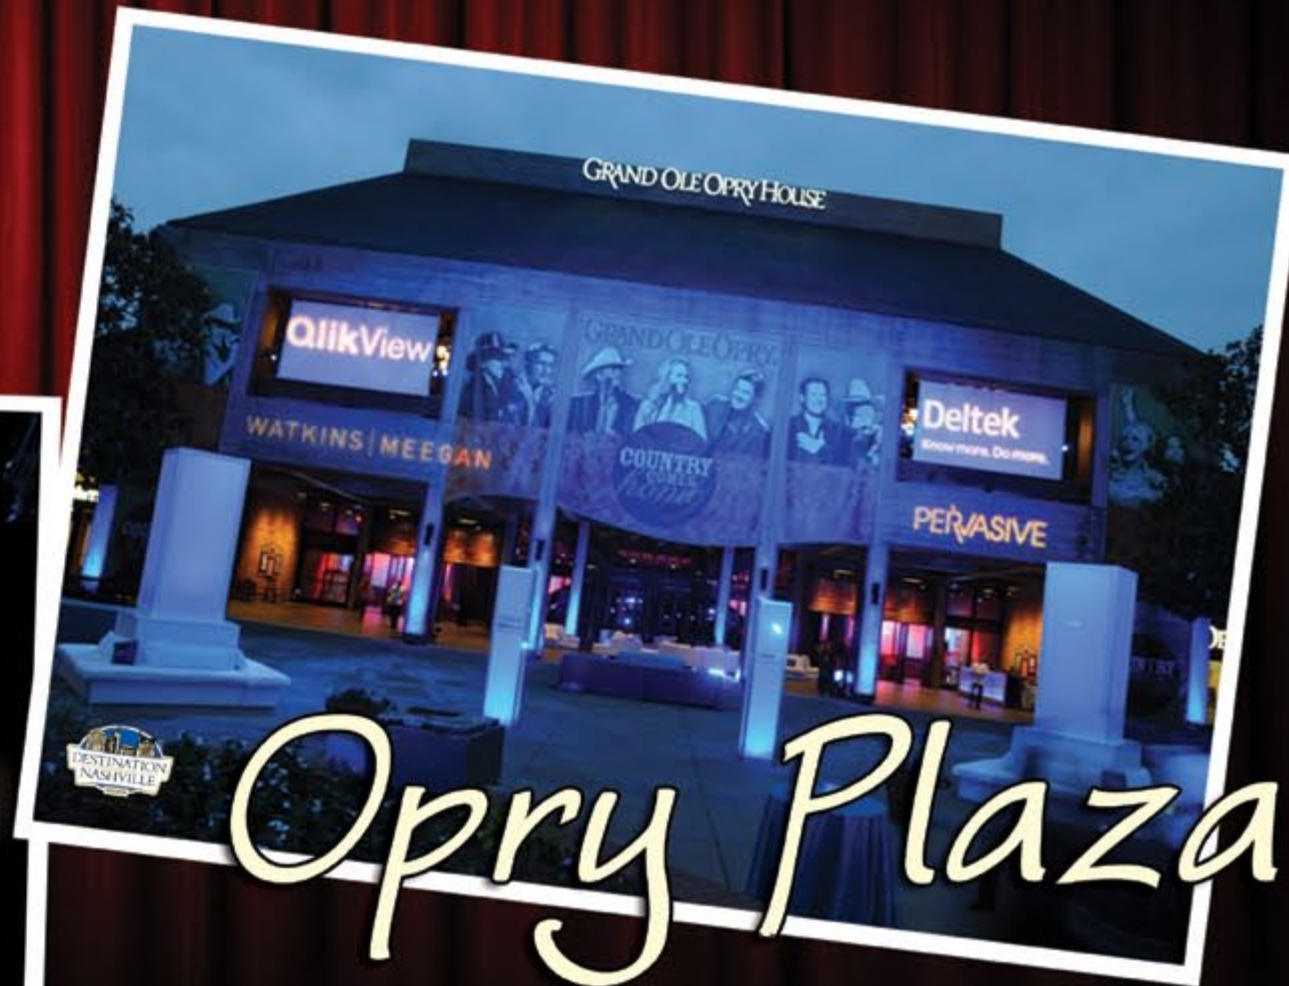

Accommodates up to 300 (seated dinner)
or 400 (reception)

Former home of hit TV show "Hee-Haw," Studio A now plays host to dinners, receptions, television tapings and more! A "black box," Studio A allows you to use your creativity to create a unique atmosphere for your guests.

Give your guests a once in a lifetime experience with a dinner or reception on the world-famous Grand Ole Opry Stage. The stage has also hosted general sessions, artists such as David Gray and Ray LaMontagne and choir performances. Your event on this famed stage will certainly be one to remember.

Stage accommodates up to 220 (dinner), 300 (reception)
Auditorium accommodates up to 4,000

Opry Stage

Opry Plaza

Accommodates up to 2,000 (seated dinner)
or 5,000 (standing reception)

The Opry Plaza is a sprawling outdoor space, perfect for groups of all sizes. Whether hosting an exclusive pre-Opry reception, or utilizing the outdoor space for an event catered specifically to your group, guests will certainly enjoy the backdrop of the majestic Grand Ole Opry House.

Backstage

The backstage area features 18 dressing rooms, each individually themed and decorated. The centrally located green room is reminiscent of a family room, with Grand Ole Opry "family photos" lining the walls. This is a wonderful place to host a smaller VIP group.

Backstage tours provide an excellent enhancement to your event and allow your guests a true inside look at the Grand Ole Opry House.
